

JACK AND WRIGLEY – A PUG LOVE STORY

Do you believe in Love at first sight? A love never ending? A love which makes you “absolutely know” you would not have made it without that special someone? That special someone you can’t get close enough to! Well let me introduce you to a couple of pugs which I feel tell “A Pug Love Story”.

Jack arrived at his owners home when he was just a puppy – and enjoyed lots of love and attention. But soon, his owners decided he needed a friend to keep him company during the day while they were at work and the smallest pug baby arrived – Wrigley. Jack wasn’t sure about this small wiggly thing – but he knew he liked it. They cuddled and he protected her – taught her to play – shared his toys, taught her where to go to do her business, – snuggled with her when she was spayed. It was love at first sight.

Just like all love stories – there were a few problems – Wrigley is a lot more active than Jack. He is inquisitive, loving, and well behaved. Wrigley is always the center of attention and right in the middle of things – but Jack understands – he loves to see her shine – loves to see her play – but Jack isn’t only Wrigley’s shadow – he has a great personality himself – enjoying his human as well as Wrigley.

They were in a wonderful foster family home who had wonderful designer rugs and leather furniture, they did not do anything to damage anything – they went outside and did their business and enjoyed the solitude of a one person home and also enjoyed the house full of family during a family gathering. Lots of people of all ages and everyone loved them. When they went to their crate at night – Wrigley slept on top of Jack – Always touching each other for the comfort of knowing they were going through this time of not knowing if they are ever going to have a forever home together.

You see, Jack and Wrigley desperately want to be together for the rest of their lives. Pug Rescue is trying to make this possible. To the point Jack and Wrigley are still being boarded at the Rescue’s vet so they can continue to be together. This isn’t good – the vet is great but – they need their own home. Their own family – someone who will not replace them with a puppy. Someone will love them for who they are.

They at least need a foster family who can handle two – but a forever family is what they want. They will give 10 times the love you give them. They will make you laugh – cuddle with you when emotions are high – and always love you – no matter what is going on in your life. A pug love is a forever love.

If you would like to adopt Jack and Wrigley (they will only be adopted together) please submit an application to adopt which you will find on the left of this page – then be prepared to find the TWO LOVES OF YOUR LIFE – they will be glad to share their love for each other with you!
